Codes Covered in ICC-ES Evaluation Reports

Every new ICC-ES evaluation report covers product compliance with the International Codes, which may include the International Building Code®, the International Residential Code®, and other codes as appropriate to the product and/or as desired by the report applicant. These codes, and others, may be purchased directly from the International Code Council, here. Note that there are fees for including additional codes within a report, as well as additional code families.